Walking route

See below a suggested walking route which takes you through the city. See below some interesting monuments, museums and libraries along the way.

Or you can as an option also have a guided tour in an app in which you can find interesting information about a lot of sights in the Rotterdam routes app, for instance about Erasmus. You can get a guided tour in the app you can install on your smartphone. The app is called Rotterdam routes, see instructions and links via Homepage - Rotterdam Routes \(https://rotterdamroutes.nl/en/\). In the app there is a route called “Erasmus” where you walk through the area, but there are other routes as well. You can use the route in the app or the suggested route below or create your own mix of the two.

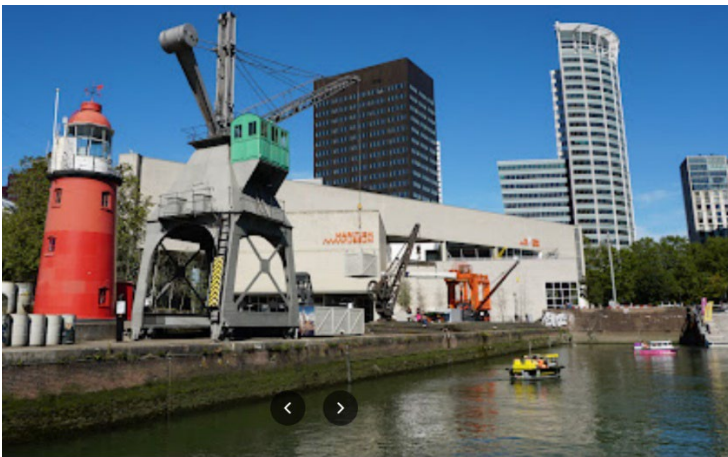

The walking distance is 4,2 kilometres and should take around 1 hour.

Also there are several monuments and points of interest on the suggested walking route. During this walk you will cross the river using the Erasmusbrug (Erasmus bridge) an iconic bridge of Rotterdam.

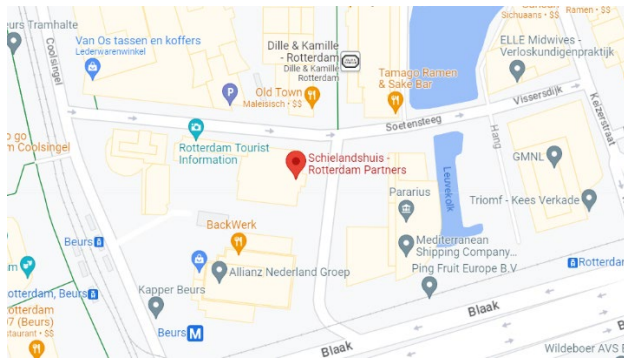

From the bridge you can walk to the maritime museum.
Address: Leuvehaven 1, 3011 EA Rotterdam

After the visit at the library you can see, for instance, right next to it there is a statue of Zadkine (the destroyed city), see below.

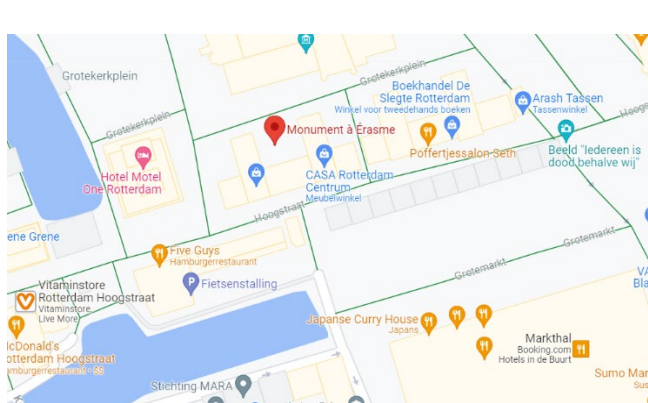

From there you can walk and see the Schielandhuis (Korte Hoogstraat 31, 3011 GK Rotterdam). One of the oldest historical buildings in Rotterdam (from 1665), see below a map and a picture

Next you can walk to the Central library. Also, have a look inside and visit the Erasmus Experience. Address: Hoogstraat 110, 3011 PV Rotterdam, Netherlands

Next to the central library you can find a Statue of Erasmus, see below a map and a picture

Finally walk through the centre to the central railway station and visit the railway station library in the central railway station

Address: Stationsplein 2, 3013 AJ Rotterdam, Netherlands
